

Join Health Links for a Training in Conjunction with the Colorado Culture of Health Conference on April 11th!

Turning Employee Well-Being into an Asset: Adapting a Total Worker Health® Risk Reduction Approach for Small Businesses

The goal of this training is to teach small businesses to rethink employee well-being not as an unsustainable burden but a business asset. We aim to expand small business access to TWH resources, improve employee health and safety outcomes, and prove a return on investment evidence for small businesses that embrace a TWH approach.

When: April 11th from 2-4 pm

Where: Colorado Convention Center

Cost: $25 Per Attendee
